

THE PROFOUND SIGNIFICANCE OF INCENSE

We may not use incense in our liturgies as often as we did in the past, but there is something very precious about the reverencing with incense of the body God has given us at the end of a funeral Mass. The great feast of the Epiphany, which we are celebrating, reminds us that frankincense was among the symbolic gifts brought to the child in Bethlehem by those mysterious wise men from the east.

In his gospel, Matthew is at pains to ensure that his audience – his own Jewish community – realise that Christ had come not only to redeem them, but all peoples. This feast completes the Christmas story: it reminds us that Christ is to be made manifest to all the nations. The prophet, Isaiah, sets the scene: the light begins in Jerusalem, but will attract the nations, who will flock with their camels and their gifts of gold and incense. St Paul in his letter reinforces the message by assuring the Ephesians that pagans can now share the same inheritance as his people. And Matthew uses the “wise men” to reveal the mystery of Christ.

Matthew’s story is rich in symbolism as he goes out of his way to ensure that we make all the necessary connections: he reminds us of the prophet Micah’s reference to Bethlehem as well as Isaiah’s mention of the gifts. He wants us to reflect on the fact that the Spirit of God must have prompted these men into action. to make their pilgrimage and be led to “fall on their knees” in homage to the child, whom they were able to recognise as the promised Messiah.

They clearly possessed those mighty gifts of the Holy Spirit: gifts of wisdom, knowledge and understanding, which enabled them to judge that God would give them the courage to undertake their undoubtedly hazardous pilgrimage and the discernment to realise that Herod was up to no good – a clear pointer to the persecutions that awaited Jesus and his followers.

Then, when they see the child, they are filled with awe and reverence, going down on their knees to pay homage. Make no mistake, their gifts are also full of meaning. The gold speaks to us of this new kingdom to be established in our hearts: a kingdom of love, hope, forgiveness and reconciliation. The myrrh speaks to us of the suffering foretold by the prophets, and the need for Christ’s body to be anointed after his death.

And finally, we come to the frankincense: this invites us to be like the wise men and recognise that Jesus is truly the Son of God. At the end of his gospel, Matthew will remind us that this act of faith was made by a foreigner, the centurion, as he stood by the cross. May we go home reminding ourselves that Jesus, in turn, told us that we are his adopted brothers and sisters, also children of his Father: hence the profound significance of the incense at a funeral Mass.

Jesus, the Reason for the Season!

Wishing everyone a happy and Holy Christmas.
May the joy we celebrate this season be the joy we share with others. May the peace that Jesus brings be ours to keep.

CHRISTMAS THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who were involved in making this Christmas a joyous celebration. So many people gave so much of their time and love. Thank you to those who so generously donated towards the costs of our Christmas flowers and those who arranged the flowers so beautifully. Those who set up the Christmas crib and the members of the music ministry who spent so much time in practice and then leading us into singing with joy and all the children and their parents who were involved in bringing to life the Christmas Story for the Vigil Family Mass, the readers and commentators, the acolytes and altar servers, the collectors and Sacristan and those who donated the chocolate for the children. Thank you too for bringing your relatives, friends and neighbours to our Christmas Masses.

I would also like to thank all of you for your many gifts, well wishes and support.

May the peace of God's Love be with you always.

Sincerely,
Fr Brennan
